

Project Fabricland 7

Challenge

Students will use New York City as their inspiration

Project Fabricland: Make it Original

A 20 week course where students will learn the basics of and use the flat pattern and/or draping methods to create an original design inspired by New York City.

Class schedule:

Sunday: 11:30-2pm November 11-April 28

Prerequisite:

Participating in Project Fabricland three or more times or Project Fabricland Collection

Ages 12-18 (if 18, in high school)

$499 class fee

Project Fabricland

A 12 week course where students will create a garment inspired by New York City.

Class schedule:

Saturday: 10-12:30pm, January 12-April 27
for ages 10-13

Saturday: 1:30-4:00pm, January 12-April 27
for ages 13-18 (if 18, in high school)

Sunday: 2:30-5:00pm January 13-April 28
for ages 12-18 (if 18, in high school)

Prerequisites:

Kids/Teens Can Sew Workshop, Sewing 101 and 102, Zippers, Seam Finishes, Hand Sewing I and/or II and at least one other garment class using a pattern. Introduction to Pattern Drafting helpful.

$299 class fee

The logo for Project Fabricland, featuring the word 'Fabricland' in a red, serif font. The text is superimposed on a white silhouette of the state of New York, which is set against a light gray background with a subtle drop shadow.

Register by phone at 908-755-4700 ext. 140 or online at Fabricland.com